三、閱讀測驗：(每題 2 分，共 10 分)

【A】 Idaho’s Dog Bark Park Inn is on almost every list of the world’s most unique hotels. In fact, it is named the top 20 most fun & exciting place to stay. There are good reasons for that: It’s shaped like a dog. Also, everything inside the homey bed & breakfast guesthouse is over-the-top dog-themed, like the pillows, the bedrest, the books, the cookies, the board games and puzzles, the curtains and the canine art works (people can buy them in the on-site gift shop). Most of them are handmade by the welcoming mom-and-pop owners. And yes, you can bring your own dog. At Dog Bark Park Inn, sleeping in the doghouse is a good thing!

reason 理由, shaped 形狀, theme 主題, pillow 枕頭, puzzle 拼圖, curtain 窗簾, canine 似犬的, owner 主人

(D) Emilia. She loves water and plans to swim in the sea.

【B】 Marie Curie was one of the most famous scientists. She was the first woman to win a Nobel Prize and the first person to win twice. She was also the only person to win in two different sciences.

Marie met her husband, Pierre Curie, at Sorbonne. They worked together to discover two new elements, polonium and radium. That earned them the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1903.

In 1906, Curie became Sorbonne’s first female professor. She continued their work on radioactivity after he died. Five years later, Curie won the Nobel Prize in Chemistry.

Her work helped develop the use of X-rays to treat people. She even created mobile X-ray teams to help WWI soldiers.

Curie was all about helping people. She gave a lot of her prize money to family, friends, students, and other scientists. All of us could learn a lot from Marie Curie.
